Objective of the Visit:

The main objective of the visit was to develop social awareness, empathy, and understanding towards elderly people living in old age homes, and to learn about their lifestyle, needs, and care facilities provided to them.

Details of the Visit:

During the visit, students interacted with the elderly residents and learned about their daily routine, food facilities, healthcare arrangements, and recreational activities. The staff members explained how they take care of the senior citizens, provide medical support, and create a homely environment for them.

Students also participated in some activities such as singing, games, and conversations to make the residents feel happy and valued. Many residents shared their life experiences, which were emotional and inspiring.

Observations / Learning Outcomes:

- Understood the importance of emotional support and companionship for the elderly.
- Gained awareness about social issues like neglect and loneliness among senior citizens.
- Learned about the management and operations of an old age home.
- Realized the need for compassion, respect, and care for senior citizens in society.

Conclusion:

The visit to the Vrudh Ashram was a meaningful and heart-touching experience. It helped students understand the value of humanity, empathy, and social responsibility. Such visits encourage young people to contribute positively to society and respect the elderly.
