NOTICE

Extension of Provisional Admission Deadline and Reminder for Regular

Attendance

All the students of Engineering (SE/TE/BE) and Master of Engineering (ME-II) are hereby informed that the deadline for provisional admission has been extended to 8th July 2024. This extension is provided to ensure that all students complete their admission process without any inconvenience.

Provisional Admission Period:

- End Date: 8th July 2024

Important Points:

- Document Submission: Ensure all necessary documents are submitted during the provisional admission process.
- Fee Payment: Pay any applicable fees on or before the new deadline to avoid fines.
- Class Attendance: Attendance in classes will not be permitted without the completion of provisional admission.
- Current Academic Year: The academic year 2024-2025 has already commenced. Students are required to attend lectures regularly from now onwards.

Consequences of Failure to Comply:

- Fine: Failure to complete the provisional admission process within the extended period will result in a fine.
- Classroom Access: You will be prohibited from entering the classroom until your admission is completed.

We urge all students to adhere to the new deadline and complete the required formalities on time to ensure a smooth start to the academic year.

Ensure Timely Completion: To avoid any inconvenience and to ensure you are able to attend classes from day one, please complete your provisional admission as soon as possible.
